Re: Meiners Electric
Louisville, KY

Gentlemen:

We understand that Meiners Electric plans to submit for your consideration a proposal for work to be performed on your upcoming projects. This letter will confirm the bonding capacity of Meiners Electric.

Garrett-Stotz Company and Ohio Farmers Insurance Company, a member of the Westfield Companies service the bonding requirements of Meiners Electric. Ohio Farmers Insurance Company appears on the U.S. Treasury List of approved sureties & is currently rated by A.M. Best Company as A (Excellent), Financial Category XI. We have recently supported Meiners Electric on single jobs up to $2,300,000 and aggregate work programs in excess of $3,500,000. We will gladly consider bonding any project Meiners Electric is interested in performing.

My relationship with Meiners Electric spans over 20 years. They have always completed their projects on time & within budget. Meiners Electric is considered by their peers & area general contractors as one of the leading electrical contractors in our region. I am confident you will find their experience & project management expertise of value to your project.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey A. Brown
