

Meiners Electric Safety Training

Control of Heat Related Injuries

Name:	Date:	Score:
--------------	--------------	---------------

1. General Questions

#	Question	True	False
1	A Job Hazard Analysis (JHA) shall be performed prior to new tasks
2	Heat related injuries can be fatal
3	It is your responsibility to know the signs of heat related injuries
4	Only the crew leader can make the decision that your are suffering from a heat related injury.
5	Tolerance to heat is built up over time
6	Coffee and other caffeinated drinks are good substitutes for water
7	An action plan should be created when the possibility of heat related injuries exists
8	Your Safety Director is available to assist you in accessing action plans
9	Failure to follow safety guidelines can result in termination of employment
10	Workers must be able to recognize the hazards associated with their assigned tasks
11	Always seek medical attention for a heat stroke victim
12	Every employee has the right to STOP a job if they believe it is unsafe
13	Hardhat and safety glasses must be worn at all times
14	Drinking excessive amounts of sports drinks may be harmful
15	If you are in doubt about your knowledge or abilities, stop and seek assistance		